

ARTIN FUTURE

Agreement number: 2020-1-DE02-KA226-VET-008138

Programme: Erasmus+, Key Action 2, Innovation

ArtIn Future is the strategic partnership for innovations project 2021-2023 developed under Erasmus+ programme KA2 activity in order to address issues related to artificial intelligence, its development and use in everyday and work life.

Intellectual Outputs:

- ArtIn Future - Ethics in Artificial Intelligence
- ArtIn Future - AI digital skills
- ArtIn Future - AI in the Business world

Project objectives:

- Debunk existing myths on AI
- Raise awareness about AI and its role in people's lives
- Explain what digital skills are needed in the current technologically loaded labour market
- Create a customised programme tailored for schools to show them needed business aspects
- Create an innovative set of digital skills experiential training situations to specifically address digital skills issues
- Promote active critical thinking and citizenship
- Improve skills and competencies of teachers/ trainers related to AI
- Offer the target group an opportunity of self-improvement through a change in the mind-set

Project target groups:

- Students of all ages
- Educators (teachers, trainers), schools
- Entrepreneurs using AI in their work
- Wider public

Partners:

Internationaler Bund (IB) Mitte gGmbH (Dresden, Germany)

Internationaler Bund (IB) is one of the largest service providers in youth, social and educational work in Europe. Its motto is Strengthening Being Human.

BEST Institut für berufsbezogene Weiterbildung und Personaltraining GmbH (Vienna, Austria)

BEST

BEST is a private institute that has been successfully supporting customers in the field of human resources for over 25 years, with a special focus on education and training as well as training and coaching.

PIKC "Daugavpils tehnikums" (Daugavpils Technical School) (Daugavpils, Latvia)

PIKC "Daugavpils tehnikums" (Daugavpils Technical School) is a Vocational Education Competence Centre in Latvia. It provides quality vocational training to students aged 16-20 in various fields, railway, ICT (programming and computer servicing), electrics, and logistics being among them.

CEIP "Felix Cuadrado Lomas" (Cisterniga, Spain)

CEIP "FÉLIX CUADRADO LOMAS" is a Spanish Public Centre for early childhood and primary education. The methodological line is based on the principles of activity, discovery and individualized learning, in favour of the integral education of all students.

Technische Universität Dresden (Dresden, Germany)

Technical University Dresden is one of the leading and most dynamic universities in Germany. Since 2012, TUD has been one of the "Universities of Excellence" and since 1 November 2019 receives permanent funding within the framework of the Excellence Strategy of the Federal and State Governments.